TICKLED PINK

Peppa Pig and Pink Panther – truly a delight

Cheery cherry blossoms are such a pretty sight

Fluffy cotton candy and strawberry ice cream

Everywhere we look, we're in a pink dream

DID YOU KNOW?

- There's no specific wavelength of light that looks pink. What we perceive as pink is a combination of red and violet light.
- Jaipur in Rajasthan is called the Pink City because, in 1876, its buildings were painted pink in preparation for a visit by Queen Victoria.
- Flamingos are pink because they eat algae containing carotenoid pigments.
- In Italy's famous cycling race, the Giro d'Italia, the leader wears a pink jersey.
- The phrase 'pink slip' means a notice of dismissal issued to an employee.
